You should only access the building by car by using our car park on Booth Street. Please arrange a car parking space if you haven't already done so. Once on Booth Street, continue to the end of the road and on the right you will see shutters. Use the intercom to gain access to the building and then park in your allocated space. Once parked, please use the intercom under the door marked Evergreen House.

By Foot

Most people find us by walking along the north bank of the River Irwell. Use sign-posted footpaths to access the waterfront from either the East or West. Not far from Blackfriars Bridge and a row of trees next to the river, you will see a glass building with concrete pillars. We are located on the first floor - you can either take the lift or go up one flight of stairs.
